Womble Carlyle Sandridge & Rice, PLLC (“WCSR”), attorneys for Pumpkin Patch LLC, as debtor and debtor-in-possession in this chapter 11 case (“Pumpkin” or the “Debtor”), submits its Thirteenth Monthly Fee Application (the “Application”), pursuant to sections 327, 330(a), and 331 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), Rule 2016-2 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”), the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 issued by the Executive Office for United States Trustees (the “Guidelines”), and this Court’s Administrative Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Professionals, dated July 22, 2009 (the “Interim Compensation Order”)² [Docket No. 92], for (i) the allowance of interim compensation for professional services performed by WCSR for the period July 1,

² Capitalized terms used herein but not capitalized shall have the meaning(s) ascribed to them in the Interim Compensation Order.

2010 through July 31, 2010 (the “Compensation Period”) in the amount of $2,197.00 (the “Interim Compensation Amount”), (ii) immediate interim payment of 80% of the Interim Compensation Amount, or $1,757.60 (the “Interim Expense Amount”), respectfully represents:

I. Jurisdiction

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

2. Venue in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

II. Background

3. On June 29, 2009 (the “Commencement Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition in this Court for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. The Debtor continues to manage and operate its business as debtor in possession under Bankruptcy Code sections 1107 and 1108.

5. The Office of the United States Trustee has not appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors in this case [Docket No. 55].

III. Summary of Application for the Compensation Period

6. By this Application, and in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order, WCSR requests approval of the Interim Compensation Amount and the Interim Expense Amount for the Compensation Period.

7. Before the Commencement Date, WCSR received a $20,000 retainer and advance (the “Retainer”) from the Debtor as security for payment of the firm’s fees and expenses for professional services to be performed relating to the preparation for and prosecution of this Chapter 11 case. Pre-petition, WCSR incurred a total of $11,375.00 in fees and expenses which was paid pre-petition from the Retainer. As to the Commencement Date Retainer balance, WCSR's retention terms with the Debtor provide for maintaining the Retainer on an "evergreen" basis, such that it would not be applied to post-petition fees and expenses of the firm until the conclusion of the firm's engagement. In connection with WCSR's retention in this case, however, WCSR agreed that the Retainer would only be applied to the firm's allowed expenses, but otherwise in accordance with its engagement terms.

8. By this Court's Order dated July 22, 2009, the Debtor was authorized to retain WCSR as its attorneys effective as of the Commencement Date, with regard to the filing and prosecution of this case and all related matters (the "Retention Order"). The Retention Order authorizes the Debtor to compensate WCSR in accordance with the procedures set forth in sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and such other procedures as were to be fixed by order of the Court. On July 22, 2009, the Court entered the Interim Compensation Order, which established such procedures.

9. During the Compensation Period, WCSR performed the services for which it is seeking compensation for the Debtor and its estate. In addition, WCSR received no payment and no promises of payment from any source, other than the Debtor, for services rendered, or to be rendered, in any capacity whatsoever in connection with the matters covered by this Application. There is no agreement or understanding between WCSR and any other person, other than members of the firm, for the sharing of compensation received for services rendered in this case.

10. WCSR maintains computerized records of the time spent by all WCSR attorneys and paraprofessionals in connection with its representation of the Debtor. Subject to redaction where necessary to preserve the attorney-client privilege, relevant copies of the computerized records for the Compensation Period are attached as Exhibit A, as further described below.

A. Summary of Services Rendered by WCSR During the Compensation Period

11. This Application is the thirteenth monthly application for Interim Compensation that WCSR has filed with the Court in this case. During the Compensation Period, WCSR provided significant professional services to the Debtor and its estate in its efforts to maximize value to the estate's stakeholders. WCSR has advised and represented the Debtor in connection with the operation of its business and all other matters arising in the performance of its duties as debtor in possession. WCSR has (i) prepared various pleadings, motions, and other documents; (ii) prepared for hearings in the case, and appeared before this Court at such hearings; and (iii) performed all of the other professional services that are described in this Application. Moreover, WCSR has minimized the need for judicial intervention in this case by close cooperation with the Office of the United States Trustee and other parties in interest.

12. Attached as Exhibit A are WCSR's itemized time records for professionals and paraprofessionals performing services for the Debtor during the Compensation Period.

13. During the Compensation Period, WCSR billed the Debtor for time expended by attorneys and paraprofessionals based on hourly rates ranging from $205 to $340 per hour. The professional services performed by WCSR on behalf of the Debtor during the Compensation Period required an aggregate expenditure of 8.60 recorded hours by WCSR's members, counsel, associates, and paraprofessionals. WCSR's blended hourly rate for services provided during the Compensation Period is $255.46.

14. The fees charged by WCSR as set forth in Exhibit A are billed in accordance with WCSR's existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Compensation Period. The rates WCSR charges for the services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals in this chapter 11 case are the same rates that WCSR charges for professional and paraprofessional services rendered in comparable non-bankruptcy related matters in a competitive national legal market.

15. All entries itemized in WCSR's time records comply with the requirements set forth in Local Rule 2016-2, including, without limitation, (i) the utilization of project categories, (ii) a description of each activity or service that each individual performed, and (iii) the number of hours (in increments of one-tenth of an hour) spent by each individual providing the services. Each project category in Exhibit A is organized in accordance with WCSR's internal system of project category or work codes (each a "Task Code"). If a Task Code does not appear, then WCSR did not bill time or expenses for that Task Code during the Compensation Period, but may bill time for that Task Code in the future. In accordance with Local Rule 2016-2(d)(x), all activity descriptions in Exhibit A are presented chronologically within each Task Code category.

16. The professional services performed by WCSR were necessary and appropriate to the administration of this case. The professional services performed by WCSR were in the best interests of the Debtor and other parties in interest. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and time-sensitive nature of the problems, issues, or tasks involved. The professional services were performed with expedition and in an efficient manner.

17. In accordance with the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the amount of fees requested is fair and reasonable given: (a) the complexity of the case; (b) the time expended; (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered; (d) the value of such services; (e) WCSR's established expertise in the bankruptcy field; and (f) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Actual and Necessary Expenses of WCSR

18. WCSR generally charges $0.20 per page for photocopying expenses; however, in accordance with Local Rule 2016- 2(e), WCSR has only charged the Debtor $0.10 per page for photocopying expenses. WCSR does not charge for outgoing facsimile transmissions.³ The rates charged by WCSR for Westlaw and Lexis computerized research vary according to the type of research conducted and the specific files researched, but, in any event, such charges are billed at cost. As per the Guidelines, WCSR has not requested reimbursement of expenses related to overhead charges, such as secretarial services and proofreading.

19. WCSR has not incurred any out-of-pocket expenses during the current Compensation Period.

C. The Requested Compensation Should Be Allowed

20. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code to govern the Court’s award of such compensation. See 11 U.S.C. § 331. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code “reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.” 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(A)(B). Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded ... the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

(A) the time spent on such services;

³ To the extent WCSR uses an outside vendor for volume faxing, WCSR bills those charges at cost. WCSR seeks competitive market rates for such outside vendor services.

- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

21. WCSR respectfully submits the professional services for which it seeks compensation and the expenditures for which it seeks reimbursement in this Application were necessary for and beneficial to the Debtor's orderly administration of its estate and its rehabilitation efforts. WCSR diligently worked to anticipate or respond to the Debtor's needs and assist the Debtor's navigation of the chapter 11 process. Such services and expenditures were necessary to and in the best interests of the Debtor's estate and creditors. WCSR further submits the compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Debtor, its estate, and all parties in interest.

22. Whenever possible, WCSR sought to minimize the costs of its services to the Debtor by assigning tasks as appropriate to junior attorneys and paraprofessionals whose rates are lower. WCSR's delegation as such has resulted in a very desirable blended rate for its timekeepers in this engagement.

23. Moreover, the vast majority of the services performed by members, counsel, and associates of WCSR were rendered by members of the Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights practice group. In so doing, WCSR brought to bear the utmost in relevant experience for the Debtor and its estate.

24. In sum, the services rendered by WCSR were necessary and beneficial to the Debtor's estate and were consistently performed in a timely manner commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the issues involved. Accordingly, approval of the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses sought herein is warranted.

D. Reservation

25. To the extent time or disbursement charges for services rendered or disbursements incurred relate to the Compensation Period but were not processed prior to the preparation of this Application, or WCSR has for any other reason not sought compensation or reimbursement of expenses herein with respect to any services rendered or expenses incurred during the Compensation Period, WCSR reserves the right to request additional compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.

IV. Notice

26. Notice of this Application will be served upon: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee, J. Caleb Boggs Federal Building, 2nd Floor, 844 King Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801, Attn: David Buchbinder, Esq.; (ii) the Debtor, Pumpkin Patch LLC, c/o Distribution Resources, 233001 54th Avenue South, Kent, Washington 98032; and (iii) co-counsel to the Debtor, Nixon Peabody LLP, 437 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10056, Attn: Dennis J. Drebsky, Esq.

V. Conclusion

WHEREFORE, WCSR respectfully requests (a) interim allowance of $2,197.00 for professional services rendered to the Committee, and (b) the approval and payment of (i) interim compensation for professional services rendered as attorneys in the amount of $1,757.60, an amount equal to eighty percent (80%) of the fees incurred during the Application Period; and (ii) such other and further relief as is just and proper.
